Property Description

Welcome to Sailor's Rest, a beautiful beachside home, fully furnished and tastefully decorated to make your Daytona getaway unforgettable. Everything in this home is brand new. Conveniently located one block from the beautiful Atlantic ocean, you will have easy access to the beach with a marked and lighted pedestrian crosswalk, or if you prefer to drive, beach access is directly across A1A. Bel-Air Plaza is two blocks to the north with a large grocery store, pharmacy, shops, and restaurants...all within walking distance. The double lot that this home is situated on provides more than ample outdoor space, right at your own front door. The huge backyard is shady and inviting for children of all ages, and the two car garage with remote access allows plenty of dry, secure parking for your car, motorcycles, or that special hot rod. As soon as you walk through the front door, you will find yourself feeling right at home in this immaculate beachside beauty. 1700+ sq ft of living space will allow everyone to relax and forget the cares of the everyday world. The great room and kitchen/dining areas provide enough comfortable seating for everyone in your group, while the four spacious bedrooms allow everyone to have their own private retreat. Come home to Daytona for your next family vacation or take in one of the exciting events the area has to offer. Bike Week, Biketoberfest, and Turkey Rod Run visitors will enjoy the location and convenience Sailor's Rest offers.

Sailor's Rest offers location, quality and value. Whether you are here for business or pleasure, this home will suit your needs, and is a great choice for families or groups. Close to shopping and dining, a wide range of activities await you, and all just a block away from the World's Most Famous Beach. We invite you to come home to Daytona for your next family vacation or enjoy some of the exciting events in the area.
